

Albrecht Bähr

Chairperson of the Supervisory Board of the Media Authority Rhineland-Palatinate

Born in Speyer, Albrecht Martin Bähr studied theology in Tübingen and Heidelberg. After completing his vicariate in Erpolzheim and Kallstadt, Germany, he became a pastor in Limbach-Altstadt in 1991.

From October 2002, he was a representative of the diaconal organisations in the representation of the Protestant churches and diaconal organisations in the state of Rhineland-Palatinate.

Since 2011, Albrecht Bähr has been the Palatinate State Pastor for Diacony and at the same time spokesperson for the Working Group of Diaconal Works in Rhineland-Palatinate.

Albrecht Bähr, the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board of the Media Authority Rhineland-Palatinate, has been involved in private and public broadcasting over many years.

Moreover, Albrecht Bähr is Chairperson of the Supervisory Board of Medien und Bildung RLP GmbH, which is a subsidiary of the Media Authority of Rhineland-Palatinate. Since the beginning of 2022, he has been Chairperson of the nationwide Conference of Committee Chairpersons (GVK) of the media authorities.